UNC/ADA Transit Survey - Distribution/Polling Opportunities - Warring

Greeley-Evans Transit (GET) News/Updates – Jones shared the following updates:

- 2a & 2b is on the Nov. ballot – if it passes sidewalk maintenance responsibilities will transfer to city. Would add substantive funding to sidewalk improvements.
- Route changes have been approved. Currently working to implement w/ timing of routes almost complete. Developing link on website that will show where new bus stops will be and also adding new accessibility features.
- Will be conducting training & public involvement as it relates to the new routes. Google maps will have info on new routes and if anyone has interest – please let GET know.
- (Red)Route 1 – will be ready to go in early 2016, four new paratransit buses coming in November 2015, two low floor buses CNG coming in April 2016
- Strategic Plan – GET is moving forward with a 5-10 year transit plan. Will input from WCMC.
- Weld, Greeley & Evans are collaborating on a study/assessment of the needs of Hill & Park neighborhood.
- GET awarded 2015 Large Community Transit Agency of the Year by the CO Association of Transit Agencies (CASTA)

Jones also reviewed GET dashboard (handout) which provides operations metrics & data. Two dashboard highlights: So far in 2015, buses have been at capacity 169 times & 2015 ridership has been greater than 2014 - every month this year.

2016 WCMC Meeting Schedule - Walton asked if anyone had any objections to the DRAFT 2016 agenda – seeing none, Walton approved the 2016 meeting schedule.
